Lynette Cobbs and Carolyn Maurer very vividly exemplify the enthusiasm displayed during the presidential election.

Speaking of oversized pistons, Dave Huser and Andy Blazer seem to have found one.

A small kitten finds friends in Nancy Wray and Ginny Mann even if it's only for the noon hour.

Let us imagine ourselves looking through a crimson flame into the '64-'65 school year. Peer into it—if the flickering seems to distort the image remember we are looking into the past, through a year of time.

At first all we see is a very ordinary building blanketed with silence and emptiness. Suddenly GHS is animated with spirit, excitement, and glee as we, the students, return.

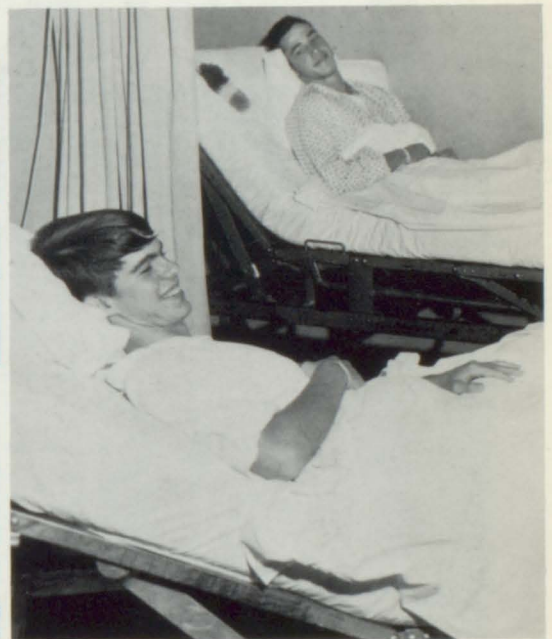

Before long we find that the initial confusion has faded into a routine of classes and homework. Despite this regular routine GHS never becomes dull or uninteresting. How could a power failure be uninteresting when we had to sit for two hours in a cold darkness waiting to be dismissed. Weather also brought us another vacation during the basketball sectionals. This blizzard, called by many the worst of the century, paralyzed the community and gave us a much appreciated two-day vacation.

Despite our loss to Elkhart in the sectionals, the colorful excitement of the tourney again broke the monotony of the old routine.

Really we would have been content even without these outstanding events. We found so much happiness in little things—going to a game or dance, anticipating an important date, or wandering the halls with someone special.

All these things, the high school life, are now over—forever for the seniors.

Flames like the one through which we have been looking can be so easily extinguished by time, wind, or rain. Quotations and thoughts can never be destroyed; so now let us look back and see this year reflected on a . . .

Dennis Ditmars and Kevin Sheets became hospital roommates after both suffered leg injuries in football.

Mirror of Thoughts

Merriment shines on the face of Kathy Pafas.

Anger contorts Bill Mowry's face.

Excitement covers Karen Snyder's face.

Charles E. King, director of the "Wings Over Jordan" choir, delighted many students with his auditorium program "Music in the Air!"

People Create and

The wheels of transportation pause; the endless circle of knowledge increases.

Happiness glows from Mr. Fields' face as he receives his doctorate.

Amiability radiates from the face of Susan Moriarty.

Faces Reflect the Varying Moods of GHS

Monte Peffley portrays Little Jack Horner being punished in a study-hall corner.

Raid really works. It killed the bug dead with the assistance of the Redskins in a 66-60 victory.

At 3:03 Sandy Sharp was already reserving her seat for the 5:00 initial meeting of the Girls' Cheerblock.

Mike Cripe and Jeannie Troyer seem to prefer slow dances.

Dave Miller and Annie Van Hout are doing the "jerk," a popular dance.

GHS, a Fountain of Friends, Fads, and

Much to parents' dismay, the long Beatle hair styles lasted another year. This problem doesn't appear to be worrying Joe Bachman, Marty Essig, and Don VanAntwerp.

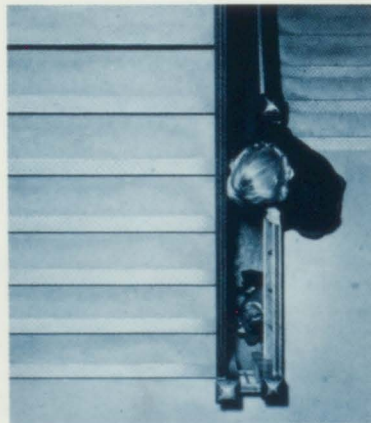

One of the most colorful fads was clothing made with madras plaids; Craig Zentz, Don Leedy and Roger Hoogenboom are wearing madras shirts.

Seniors Cheryl Clason, Stephanie Bergman, and Karen Snyder are modeling one of the latest vogues—black patterned stockings.

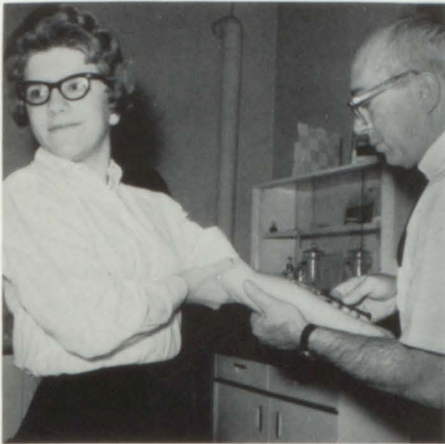

The popularity of folk songs continued to grow. Looks as if Jane Weaver and Pat Massanari are planning a hootenanny.

Barb Fretz is calling to Jeff Caton down the east stairwell.

Fun, Glistens with Colorful Activities

Susan Yoder prefers not to watch Dr. Turner give her a tuberculin Mantoux test.

For those who've stood in line all year and never made it to the drinking fountain, here's what it looks like. It's a parabola.

Mike McCall is casually finishing a hearty cafeteria meal.

Susan Fretz and Rick Comstock wander happily into the future with their shadows leading the way.

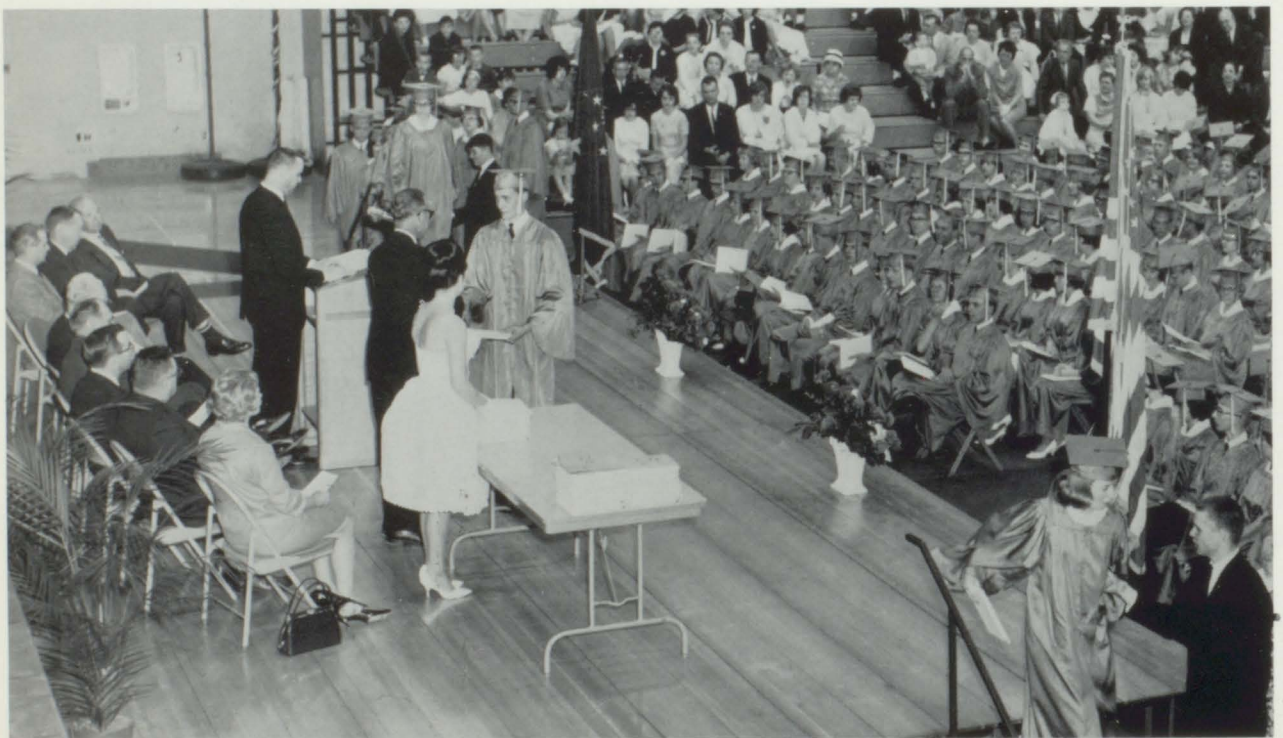

Mr. Fields addresses the seniors—Our principal extended his best wishes for the future to our graduating seniors.

As the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" filled the GHS gymnasium at 8:00 p.m., June 1, the class of '64 graduates solemnly filed into their seats. The invocation was given by Rev. Robert Hartzler, and the high school choir sang "Born To Be Free."

Some very interesting thoughts on preparing for the future were presented to the graduates in Dr. Dean Berkley's talk, "You Pack Your Own Chute."

Then came the time everyone was waiting for. Mr. Fields presented the Class of 1964 and Mr. Daniel Chiddister gave them their diplomas. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Floyd Hartzell and the Recessional was heard as the graduates left GHS for the last time to "Pack Their Own Chutes."

Our '64 Seniors Move Onward

Presentation of diplomas—Mr. Daniel Chiddister, with the assistance of Miss Kathy Paflas, presented the graduates with their diplomas.

Jeanne Redsecker, Linda Brunk, Beckie Yoder, and Paula Brainard were all selected to represent GHS at Girls State.

Summer Instituters Gain Knowledge at I.U.

In the humid heat of last summer, twelve seniors, in turn, invaded Indiana University.

Don Riley and Bill Bigler led the procession when they attended Boys State. Although the Girl Staters, Linda Brunk, Paula Brainard, Jeanne Redsecker, and Beckie Yoder attended I. U. the last week in June, they were there for the same purpose—to learn good citizenship.

The day after the Boy Staters left I. U., Monte Peffley arrived to sample different fields of science endeavors at the Science Institute.

Mary Riddle, the "Tomahawk" news editor, found her stay most profitable at a newswriting institute. Kathy Main, editor, and Paul Miller, business manager, of the Tomahawk spent an informative two weeks learning ways to make our school paper more efficient, informative, and enjoyable.

During this time, Nancy Briggs was studying the future of electronic equipment in libraries at a library institute also at I.U.

Editor of the Crimson, Dave Lewallen, arrived at Wright Quad on July 26 for two weeks of yearbook instruction.

Finally Don Riley returned to I. U. on August 16 for the Student Council Institute at which problems of student government were discussed.

When the students had to depart, they always had trouble fitting the things they had gained in their suitcase. Somehow they managed and returned to Goshen a weary but wiser group.

Bill Bigler and Don Riley both were delegates to Boys State.

Gay Nineties Theme Exceeds All

May 1, 1964 was a wonderful night for those attending the Junior-Senior class Prom. The theme of the Gay Nineties was carried out through simulated store fronts of the Apothecary's Shop the Ice Cream Parlor, the Milliner's, the General Store, and the Chronicle. Juniors and seniors danced to the music of Lou Gorse until midnight. Some of our talented faculty also provided entertainment. Dan Chiddister and Mary Ann DeBiaggio were crowned as the royalty of the Prom. Juniors Monty Peffley and Meredith Rumsey were our Prince and Princess.

Sign in please! Nan Schnobelen, Dick Anderson, Trina Erst, and Steve Kull are entering the Prom here with sophomores Jeannie Hostetler and Judy Beechy seated at the right.

In front of the general store. Bill Bigler, Jill Ogle, Judy Morse, and Dennis Ditmars are shown at the Gay Nineties' lamp post. Others are eating in the background.

Hostesses take a break. Snowden Stookey, Jane Luke, Juday Delcamp, and Linda Strasser are getting some refreshments as the hostesses of the Prom.

Expectations as Fabulous Prom Is Created

As the clock ticked away, the Prom moved to the theatre to see "Seven Days in May." The couples became lively once more as they danced to the beat of the Princeton Five. Soon the rooster was crowing, and breakfast time had arrived. Ham, sandwiches, and punch were fed to the hungry night owls. The chairman of the Prom was Kathy Paflas. Sponsors were Miss Norma Lee Blair, Miss Jean Tribolet, Mr. John Allyn, and Mr. Dan Reynolds. As the gates closed to Prom City, juniors and seniors went home a tired, yet happy group

Where is Kim's contact? Rita Pletcher is looking for a contact lens which slipped from the eye of her escort, Kim Dunnick. Elaine Jennings is watching the mishap on the right. Roger Hoogenboom is on the left.

Crowned in glory! Mary Ann DeBiaggio and Dan Chiddister were crowned King and Queen of the 1964 GHS Junior-Senior Prom. Meredith Rumsey and Monty Peffley of the junior class were our Princess and Prince. Kathy Paflas, left, chairman of the Prom, and Jack Peterson, her escort, crowned the honored couples.

They're not seniors! Mr. William Doba and his wife Judith seem to be enjoying this dance at the Prom.

Excess of Dramatic Ability Enriches "Wings of the Dove"

Lynn Webster pauses to check her lines.

Mr. William Schultz spent endless hours working on all phases of the play production. The senior class gratefully appreciated his assistance in making the play a tremendous success.

Beverly Butler and David Lewallen are having a tense argument over their plot to get Milly Temple's money.

"Wings of the Dove," a three act drama written by Henry James, was presented by the Senior Class on March 19 and 20.

Taking place in London and Venice, the play revolves around Kate Croy and Richard Denning's plan to obtain Milly Temple's money when she dies.

For a time, it seems Milly may, by some miracle, overcome the deadly Addison's disease.

In the third act we find Milly has died. Richard inherits the money and Kate returns. Time has carried out their plan perfectly, but it has also broken their bond of love.

Mr. James' crisp dialogue and the cast's superb performance made this play one to be long remembered.

Mary Riddle adopts Don Riley, her doctor, as her father.

Mary Riddle introduces John Phend to Monte Peffley, one of her suitors.

Preparation of the scenery: Many long hours were spent setting up scenery. Mike Druley and Bill Byers are putting finishing touches on the set.

Miss Barbara Zook kindly took over Mr. Shultz's responsibility of directing our play when illness made it impossible for him to continue. Much thanks go to her for the hours and efforts she spent to assure a successful performance.

"Best Foot Forward" Delights Audience

"Best Foot Forward" is a three-act comedy revolving around the boys at Winsocki Prep who are making preparations to receive the girls for a big annual dance. Bud Hooper is very gloomy and his roommates finally find out the trouble. Bud got carried away after he saw a movie starring Gale Joy, and he wrote the movie star asking her to come to the prom. She accepted! So the faculty won't get angry Bud tries to take Gale Joy to the dance as his girl Helen—but then Helen arrives! Bud gets deeper and deeper into trouble, but he is saved from being expelled.

A longing look. The blind date, Snowden Stookey; and Dutch Miller, Steve McClain, look longingly at one another.

Last minute preparations: The make-up greatly complimented the appearance of the cast.

Sophomores Display Talent Before Full House

On April 10, 1964, in the GHS auditorium, Professor Aw Fiz Rocker took the audience on an unusual voyage from Shakespeare's time through the days of the Charleston to the era of purple people-eaters. It was the class of 1966's presentation of "Those Were the

The student directors were Debbie Wohlford and Tom Miller. Sponsors were Miss Yoder, Miss Barnes, Mr. Hart, and Mr. Clason.

The modern teens were Susan Bunger, Sandy Grover, Gayle Whitehead, Tobie Caldbeck, Patty Wortinger, Pam VanderReyden, Nancy Carlin, and Kathy Firkins.

Presence of Queen and Court Enhances Track Event

Queen Lois Kauffman arrives for the relay festivities.

On April 25, 1964, lovely Lois Kauffman was crowned queen of the 21st annual Goshen Relays by Alvin Warstler, Honorary Referee, at Foreman Field. Beverly Butler, junior; Susan Moriarty, sophomore; Carol Radkey, freshman; were chosen as her court.

These six girls comprised the queen candidates and their court. Left to right, are Kathy Paflas, Connie Schrock and Beckie Yoder, all seniors. In the rear are Snowden Stookey, a junior; Emily Garber, a sophomore; and Norene Kauffman, a freshman.

A highlight of the '64 Goshen High football season was the coronation of our Homecoming Queen on October 9. The candidates were elected through a ballot vote by the students. The Homecoming celebration is sponsored by the Tomahawk, GHS newspaper.

As the last notes of "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody" sounded across Foreman Field, Connie Schrock was crowned Homecoming Queen. Miss Dianne Paul, last year's Homecoming Queen, presented the crown to Connie; and little Susan Keil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Keil, presented Her Highness with a bouquet of roses. Mitch Lewallen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewallen, was the royal crown bearer.

Connie Schrock Reigns Over Homecoming

Coronation of Sweetheart Queen Crowns Day's Activities

Queen Carol Radkey sparkles with happiness.

Pink and White carnations sold by Sunshine Society, Medicorps' singing valentines and the Sweetheart Queen's coronation colorfully accented St. Valentine's Day.

Preceding the Sweetheart's Ball, the student body voted for the Sweetheart Queen and her court. The Sophomore Class nominated Vicki Jennings, Carol Radkey, Jade Westfall, Emily Garber, Pam Beer, and Beccy Leedy as queen candidates. Members of the court elected by their respective classes were senior, Nedra Brookmyer; junior, Jane Luke; and freshman, Janet Rogers.

Finally beneath a huge red and white heart, Carol Radkey who had been elected by the entire school was crowned 1965 Sweetheart Queen. Pam Beer was runner-up.

Stan Miller, Ted Blosser, Mike Druley, and Tom Stump are singing a valentine to Barb Griffin.

Faces dissolve into masses as underclassmen rush through the halls.

A faculty member for seven years, Mr. Elmer Bowers has inspired many students.

An alphabet here and a multiplication table of living breathing human faces. Everybody is you and me and all the others.

The people yes, the people.—Sandburg

Its Promised

Power—People

A popular senior couple, Don Riley and Jennifer Hoogenboom, do not seem too anxious to part at the close of another school day.

The sponsors of the class of 1965, Miss Blair, Miss Tribolet, Mr. Allyn, and Mr. Reynolds, are discussing the possibility of a senior class trip.

We are always looking to the future; our ideal, whatever it may be, lies further on.

Seniors Possess Fondest Memories of the Past

Juniors Put Best Foot Forward

As the class of 1966 entered the halls of GHS for another year, we realized that we were finally UPPERCLASSMEN! Receiving our class rings was the first memorable event of the year. Our play, "Best Foot Forward," was a huge success.

With the help of our sponsors, Miss Barnes, Miss Wolfe, Mr. Hart, and Mr. Clason, we started to plan for the biggest event of the year—the Junior-Senior Prom.

As the year ended we looked forward to returning next year, for the last time, to grace the halls of Goshen High School as Seniors.

Class of '66 sponsors are shown below. They are Miss Barnes, Miss Wolfe, Mr. Hart, and Mr. Clason.

Sophomores Combine Talent for Class Unity

We have had an exciting year as sophomores with the help of our sponsors, Miss Grogg, Mrs. Schmidt, Mr. Haney, and Mr. Gibson.

Our activities have included selling concessions, the Sweetheart Dance, and, of course, the Variety Show.

We are all looking forward to next fall when we will at last be upperclassmen!

Sophomores Continue to Build a Memory

Class Officers and Sponsors Help Guide Freshmen Through a Successful Year

We, the class of 1968, entered high school life with much enthusiasm. Wanting to make our mark in the history of GHS, we began by electing our class officers: Charles Jones, president; Craig Kauffman, vice president; Ruth Kauffman, secretary; and Janet Rogers, treasurer. Our class parents are: Mr. and Mrs. James Phend and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Rheinheimer.

As we became accustomed to the routine of high school, we made many discoveries.

Our class sponsors Miss Lois Kyler, Miss Coleen Handgen, Mr. Harold Kastner, and Mr. Ralph Peterson helped get our year rolling. Selling concessions at the Fort Wayne North-Goshen football game was the first of our money-making projects.

Time passed quickly; and by the end of the year, we found ourselves anxious to become sophomores.

Lee L. Eve has served as superintendent of Goshen city schools since 1959 and is now known and respected for his contribution to the Goshen schools and community. Mr. Eve is a past president of the Indiana Schoolmen's Club, the Indiana School Business Officials and Superintendents Association, and the Indiana High School Athletic Association Board of Control. He is in frequent demand as a speaker for local school, civic, and church groups.

Mr. Harold Bechtel, Director of Curriculum and Research of the Goshen city schools, is shown seated at his desk in the Administration offices on South Fifth Street.

Mrs. Roberta Rowell and Mrs. Josephine Young are the competent secretaries who work in the Superintendent's office.

Goshen Community Schools Organize

Effective July 1, 1964, the merger of the Goshen city schools with Elkhart township schools became a reality. The new school corporation is known as the Goshen Community Schools. Its policy-making body is the Board of Education which consists of five members. Three members are appointed by the City Council and two members are appointed by the Elkhart County Township trustee and his advisory board.

Their duties include the hiring of teaching and administrative personnel, budgeting tax monies, planning school construction, and translating the public's wishes into policies pertaining to the operation and function of the schools.

The Board's decisions are executed by the Chief Executive Officer, the Superintendent of Schools.

Principal Promotes Student — Faculty Cooperation

Dr. Charles Fields, in his fifth year as principal of Goshen High School, continues to spend long days and evenings fulfilling the many duties of his office. A familiar figure at both school and community events, students respect him for his high ideals which he represents to the student body. Dr. Fields received his Bachelor's, Master's, and Doctor of Education degrees from Indiana University.

Mrs. Fred Blosser, secretary in the principal's office, is well known to all GHS students for her charming wit, willingness to help with any problem, and her sparkling personality. She is indispensable to the smooth functioning of the many activities emanating from the principal's office.

Mr. Robert B. Mathews, assistant principal of Goshen High School since 1951, is a long-time resident of our community. In addition to his administrative duties, he is auditor of extracurricular accounts and a teacher in the Math. Department.

Dr. Fields presides at most student assemblies, all faculty meetings, and makes the announcements to the student body each day at 1:00.

MISS JEAN TRIBOLET, girl's counselor, confers here with Jane Luke. She, also, assists in the planning of our schedules. She teaches in the English Department and sponsors the senior class.

Chic MRS. JEAN HOOVER is shown at her desk in the Guidance Suite which is the hub of many activities. Keeping student records, recording grades, issuing report cards, and acting as secretary to the guidance counselors are a few of her varied duties.

Staff Coordinates

Keeping accurate records, typing and mimeographing tests for teachers, acting as secretary for the Athletic Business Manager, selling books, and assisting in writing admittance slips are some of the many activities performed by always-smiling MRS. BARBARA OGLE.

MRS. DOROTHY McFARLAND, R.N., school nurse, is seen carrying out her many duties in the Health Center. Here students who are ill or need first aid are given attention.

MR. CARL REINER, Registrar, is in charge of guidance and testing. Here he is counseling Jerry Rogers in selecting a good college to attend.

Schedules

Boys who have been absent must secure admission slips to class from MR. ROBERT MATHEWS.

MR. HAROLD KASTNER is also one of the popular counselors of our guidance staff.

MR. DART K. BEMENDERFER is the attendance officer for the Goshen Community School.

Meet the Big Wheels That

Freshmen have their first contact with the Goshen High School Science Department in JOHN ALLYN'S biology classes. He is also a sponsor of the Senior Class.

Our wise teacher of chemistry and physics is ELMER BOWERS, chairman of the Science Department. He is also a sponsor of the Science Club.

HENRY CLASON teaches civics and world history to all social studies majors. He is also one of the Junior Class sponsors.

NORMA LEE BLAIR, in her second year at our high school, is the clothing teacher and a Senior Class sponsor.

The man who coaches our basketball teams to victory is AUTHUR COS-GROVE. He teaches driver training during the school day.

FRED BLOSSER, chairman of the Mathematics Department, teaches solid geometry, advanced algebra, and college trigonometry. In his spare moments he sponsors the Euclidean Club and is official basketball scorekeeper for all at-home games and away games.

WILLIAM DOBA, in his third year at GHS, teaches general math and algebra. After classes are over for the day, he acts as assistant football coach, assistant baseball coach, and as sponsor of the G-Club.

Make the Little Wheels Go Around

MRS. BERNIECE DWYER has a full schedule teaching advanced typing, beginning and advanced shorthand, and retailing. Sponsoring the CRIMSON is her extra-curricular assignment.

Director of our choir and orchestra is JAMES GREINER. The Crimsonaires mixed choirs, the girls glee club, the boys glee club, and the Madrigal Singers are also under his competent direction.

Director of pool activities and swimming coach is BILL ENNIS. During the day he teaches swimming and men's physical education classes.

Chairman of the Business Education Department, MISS ETHEL GROGG, teaches book-keeping, and secretarial-clerical training. She is also a sponsor of the Sophomore Class and Future Teachers of America.

GEN is one of the attractive new teachers in the Mathematics Department. She teaches general math to freshmen and sophomores.

JEFFERSON HARTZ-
LER, new to the faculty of GHS this year, teaches geometry and algebra. He is also concession manager.

Faculty Strives to Inspire Individual

LARRY HANEY,
in his second year
at GHS, is kept busy teaching algebra and applied science. He also assists in sponsoring the Sophomore Class.

GHS students are learning their Spanish this year under the competent direction of CARL HORNEMAN. He also sponsors the Pan-American Club.

Popular teacher of
U. S. history is congenial RICHARD HARLEY. He is also chairman of the Social Studies Department.

Many GHS students and alumni have learned how to become careful drivers through the patient instruction of E.
BURDETTE HOKE.
He also teaches the citizenship course to freshmen. In addition, he acts as intramural director and attempts to keep our campus safe and accident-free.

GHS students learn how to operate their business machines and the intricate points of business law from the able teaching of
CHARLES HART.
He also assists in sponsoring the Junior Class and acts as secretary of the Goshen Relays.

Seniors learn their psychology lessons well under HAROLD
KASTNER'S tutelage.
He also spends his days counseling and assists in sponsoring the Freshman Class.

WILBUR KERN who sponsors Latin Club is the new Latin teacher, at Goshen High School.

Assistant Principal ROBERT MATHEWS teaches algebra, sponsors the Student Council, and the Council for Student Organizations, and is auditor of extracurricular accounts.

Achievement and Character Development

Many GHS freshmen are learning their English this year under the able instruction of LOIS KYLER who is also a Freshman Class sponsor.

Boys learn their beginning and advanced mechanical drawing, woodworking and general shop under the experienced direction of RALPH PETERSON. He also assists in sponsoring the Freshman Class.

Chairman of our Art Department is RODERICK LIECHTY. He teaches beginning art, Art II, and designs and crafts.

Registrar of GHS, CARL REINER, is to be found all day in the Guidance Suite counseling students. Teaching algebra and sponsoring the National Honor Society are his additional duties.

GHS girls learn how to keep in tip-top shape in ALICE LOW'S physical education classes and under her sponsorship in Girls Athletic Association.

DAN REYNOLDS may be found daily in room 215 teaching English. After 3:00 p.m. he assists in sponsoring the Senior Class and Future Teachers of America.

Future auto mechanics learn their trade well under the experienced guidance of ALLEN ROGERS. He is also industrial co-ordinator and sponsors the ushers at athletic events.

Many GHS freshmen and sophomores are learning their English this year under the teaching of MRS. CAROL SCHMIDT. She also assists in sponsoring the Sophomore Class.

Seniors will not soon forget their sociology or economics taught in NORMAN SHIRES' classes. He also acts as an assistant football coach, assistant track coach, and assistant wrestling coach.

JERRY SNYDER is the new journalism teacher at GHS this year. After classes are over, he spends late hours with his "Tomahawk" staff.

GHS Instructors Stress Comprehension and

The new speech teacher is WILLIAM SCHULTZ. He is sponsor of the Speech Club coach of junior and senior plays, and debate coach.

Known for his prize-winning concert and marching bands is ROBERT SHARPE who is Music Department chairman and band director.

Many juniors have learned their U. S. history under TOM SOVINE in room 309. He is also well-known for his renowned tennis teams.

Freshmen and sophomore boys do their calisthenics in JOE SPRINGER'S physical education classes. He is also head football coach, head wrestling coach, assistant track coach, and sponsor of G-Club.

Electricity and electronics are taught for the first time at GHS this year by MERLE TOOKER. Part of his day is spent teaching at the Junior High.

MR. ALVIN WARTSLER is our talented industrial arts and general shop teacher. He is also chairman of the Industrial Arts Department, treasurer of the GHS Athletic Association, and the athletic ticket manager.

JEAN TRIBOLET teaches English classes but spends most of her days counseling in the guidance office. She also assists in sponsoring the Senior Class.

Foods in the Home-making Department is taught by BEVERLY WEATHERHOLT. In addition, she is the sponsor of Future Homemakers of America.

Application of Knowledge and Basic Concepts

Boy's health and citizenship classes are taught by PAUL UNDERWOOD. He is also the athletic business manager and director of the Goshen Relays.

GHS students are learning to type this year under the amiable direction of SHARON WOLFE, new to the faculty of Goshen High School. She also is one of the sponsors of the Junior Class.

Head cross country coach and track coach is energetic WILLIAM WALKER. He also teaches biology in the Science Department.

DON YODER will be found most any day teaching English in room 313. In addition, he coaches the GHS golf team.

Girls learn to keep physically fit in MISS MARIETTA YODER'S physical education, swimming, and health classes. She is also a sponsor of the Girl's Athletic Association.

College-bound seniors are forever grateful for the English learned in BARBARA ZOOK'S classes. She serves as chairman of the English Department; and after daily classes are over, she will be found sponsoring Booster Club and the cheerleaders.

In Memoriam

Memory is a capricious and arbitrary creature. You never can tell what pebble she will pick up from the shore of life to keep among her treasures, or what inconspicuous flower of the field she will preserve as the symbol of "thoughts that do often lie too deep for tears." . . . And yet I do not doubt that the most important things are always the best remembered.
—Henry Van Dyke.

Miss Mary Kathryn Shaffer, popular teacher at Goshen High School for nineteen years, died in a car-train accident on August 8, 1964.

Miss Mary Kathryn Shaffer taught at Goshen High School for nineteen years. During her entire teaching career her students and their achievement were of paramount concern to her. Through her careful and wise teaching, they achieved significantly, meeting competition and often bringing back to Goshen High School high honors for their mastery of Latin learned in her classes.

Respected by her colleagues as well as her students, she will always be remembered as a devoted teacher who took seriously her responsibility to her profession and to her students.

Looking on as Mrs. Edna Welty stirs the chili are Myrtle Shrine, Janice Ernsberger, Lorena Detwiler, Phyllis Clingerman, and Helen Ronk. These are the women who prepare the fine meals that satisfy those hunger pains we feel most every day at 11:30.

Mrs. Ruth Halpin, manager of our fine cafeteria, is here planning another one of those tasty meals served for both junior high and high school students. She also plans and serves meals to any civic groups who wish to use the cafeteria.

Harold Spencer, Shirl Foos, Earl Hapner, Clarence Ganger, and S. D. Brunk are the men who work after school to keep our building shining clean.

These Are Indispensable, Too!

Mrs. Florence Leonard, our lady custodian, is here smiling as she goes about her daily tasks.

Mrs. Wanda Paluchniak has the responsibility of keeping a constant supply of clean towels, swim suits, gym uniforms, and cafeteria linens.

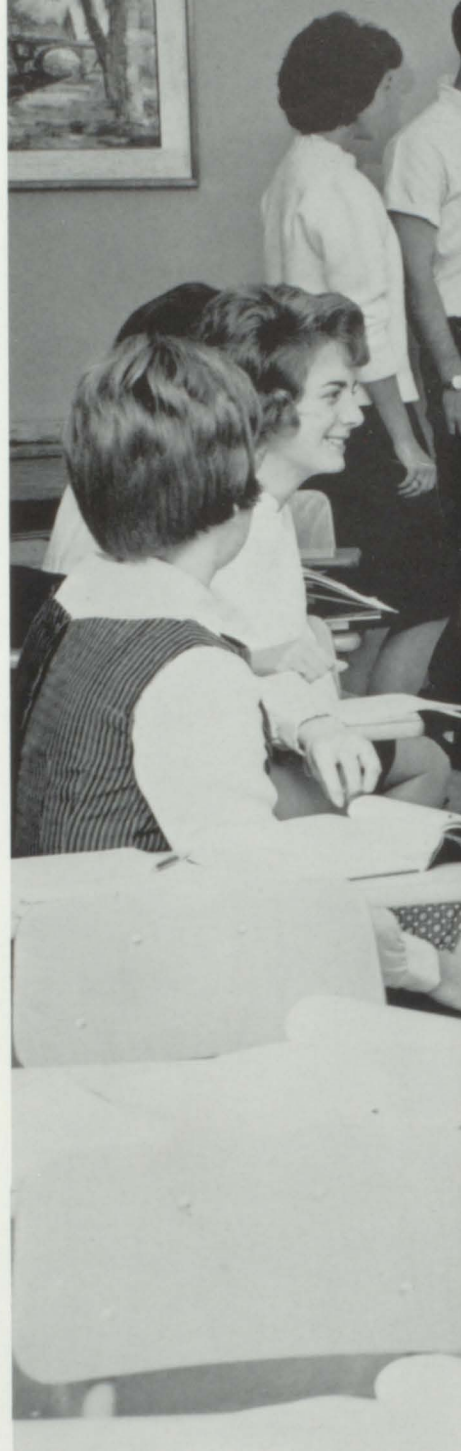

Using the reference books in the library are John Stellingwerf, Gwyn Bontrager, Leonard Wysong, Steve Cotherman, Greg Burdette, Tom Nagle, and Dennis Baker.

Connie Schrock, senior, is taking dictation in Mrs. Dwyer's Advanced Shorthand class.

Education is a companion which no misfortune can depress—no crime destroy—no enemy alienate—no despotism enslave. At home, a friend; abroad, an introduction; in solitude a solace; and in society, an ornament. Without it what is man?—a splendid savage.
—Varle

GHS Curriculum Is Designed to Develop Student Potential

Miss Zook's English Literature class is discussing the bulletin board display which pertains to Chaucer's Canterbury Tales.

Mr. Bowers is explaining the use of the centrifuge to his second-period Chemistry class. Students listening are Tom Stump, Steve McClain, Ted Blosser, Ron Leer, Barb Reed, Jane Weaver, Mackie Steele, and Greg Ilnicki.

Tom Shelton, Vicki Jennings, and Nancy Wray are working on a geometry problem while Mr. Hartzler looks on.

Mathematics Students for

General mathematics or Algebra I and II are required of all GHS students. Algebra provides a basis for continued mathematical study. Sophomores may continue their study with plane geometry which deals with figures in two dimensions. Advanced algebra, involved with the solutions of more difficult equations and logarithms, may be elected by junior students for one semester. Related with the volumes and areas of solids, solid geometry completes the junior's study of mathematics.

As seniors, students continue to pursue their mathematic interest. College algebra-trigonometry is primarily concerned with the theory of measuring triangles. A senior math course is offered for those who desire it. Students who wish to know more about mathematics of the commercial world may enroll in Business Arithmetic.

Mr. Fred Blosser is the chairman of this department.

Sherry Kintigh and Doug Smucker are staining a slide in Mr. Allyn's second-period Biology class.

and Science Prepare Technical World Ahead

"These lab manuals aren't supposed to be used as cookbooks!" japed Mr. Elmer Bowers, head of the Science Department. Physics and chemistry are the physical sciences offered to juniors and seniors planning to attend college. Chemistry provides an opportunity to acquire basic concepts pertaining to molecular changes in composition and the related transformations of energy. Physics is concerned with the conversions of physical energies.

Biology is a general course designed for all students who have a desire to learn more about living things. This course may be considered essential in developing a well-rounded high school education. Applied Science is elected by juniors and seniors not entering the field of science for its practical uses.

The tables are turned as John Van Hout, Sem Sutter, and Gene Stutsman instruct Mr. Blosser on the graph formation of this algebra problem.

Senior Cindi Hare is using the GHS library's extensive research facilities to help her with one of her many high school assignments.

Julie Smucker, a junior, is seated at the shadowscope in Mr. Gibson's reading laboratory.

Languages Stress the Importance of

Mr. Horneman, new Spanish teacher at GHS this year, is helping Malinda Peffley with her lesson. Others in the front row of the language laboratory are Don Ogle and Denny Paff.

Three years of English are required of all students. The first two years are spent learning basic grammar and reading our country's literature while increased reading rates are developed. Through public speaking and journalism, our communicative abilities are greatly expanded. A refresher course in English is also offered.

College-bound seniors usually take English VII and VIII. Miss Barbra Zook, head of the English Department, instructs them in English Literature and the styles employed in various types of writing. Under her expert supervision, upperclassmen amass their grammatical abilities in writing a research paper.

Jim Howard is giving a book report to Mr. Reynold's English V class.

"Nescire autem quid antequam natum sis acciderit, id est semper esse puerum."
—Cicero. Mr. Kern, the new Latin teacher at Goshen High School this year, is helping Carol Gibson, Priscilla Carpenter, and Anna Schmidt with second year Latin.

Communication

At Goshen High School, students may choose from French, Latin, or Spanish to fulfill their language requirements. The cultures of the people who speak these tongues are studied as students learn to read, write, and speak another language. Most students take a two-year course, but third and fourth classes are now being offered.

The new language laboratory provides the latest in language instruction and is being used by an increasing number of students.

Members of the Social Studies Department, headed by Mr. Richard Harley, are well-informed about the affairs and social conditions of the world.

To fulfill graduation requirements, all students are required to take health, citizenship, and U. S. History. World History is an elective course for all history majors related with the development and influence of various civilizations.

Civics, also a requirement, supplements U. S. History developing citizens for a democratic society and promoting an understanding of the governmental systems of America. Juniors and seniors must select either sociology or economics. Psychology may be elected to acquire an understanding of the mind and human behavior.

Social Studies Develops an Understanding of Our World — Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow

Fern Hostetler and Kathy Kile are pointing out the muscular system of the human anatomy to Miss Yoder's Health class.

"ALL RIGHT PEOPLE." Let's have some class participation!" Mr. Harley informs his class in U. S. History. Students seen are: First row: Sandy Rohn, Sherry Dexter, and Debby Carpenter; Second row: Barb Reas, Carol Manning, Linda Mabie, and Larry Mullins; Third row: Pete Yoder, Randy Edwards, John Neidballa, and Steve Locke.

Business Courses Offer Complete Occupational Training

"Keep your eyes on your copy and not on the keyboard!" has been heard by many beginning GHS typing students. Through the business courses offered at GHS, students prepare for careers in business and also receive a general knowledge of beneficial skills.

Courses offered are personal typing, business typing, and advanced typing, beginning and advanced shorthand, office machines, book-keeping, business law, retailing, and secretarial-clerical training.

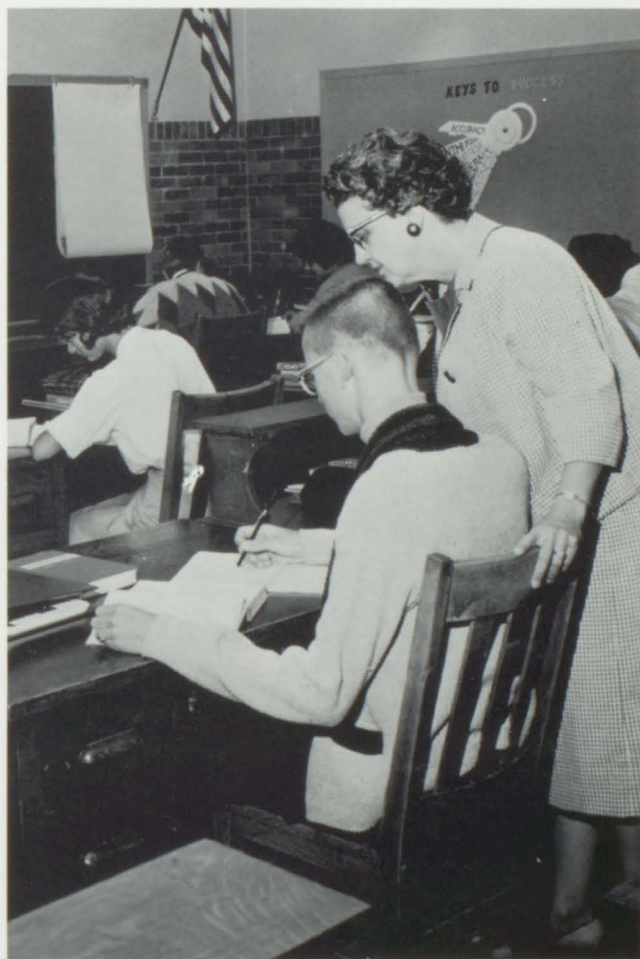

Upon successful completion of these courses, the student is ready for initial employment in the business world. Miss Ethel Grogg is chairman of the Business Education Department.

Mr. Hart's first-period Office Machines class is learning to use the equipment of the business world. Students shown are: Georgiann Kasdorf, Jolene Mast, Jenell Waldrop, Connie Wiederman, and Judy Keim.

Mrs. Dwyer's Advanced Shorthand class is reading outlines from the board under the direction of Jeanne Redsecker.

In Bookkeeping class Miss Grogg, head of the Business Education Department, is reminding Dick Magnum that his debits must always equal his credits.

Miss Weatherholt's Foods IV class is trying out a new recipe. Sally Comer is at the stove; Nancy Miller is washing dishes; Patsy Berkey is setting the table and Paulette Bauer is putting the cake in the oven.

The Industrial Arts Department, headed by Mr. Alvin Warstler, offers courses ranging from general shop to such specialized courses as vocational machine, auto mechanics, advanced woodworking and architectural drawing. Our shop building is fully equipped for instruction in metal-working, woodworking architectural and mechanical drawing, blueprinting, automechanics, and this year's new course, electricity and electronics.

Vocational Classes Provide Future Homemakers and Industrial Leaders With Practical Training

"Always lay your pattern with the straight of the fabric," Miss Blair is saying as she instructs her Clothing I class how to lay their pattern on their material.

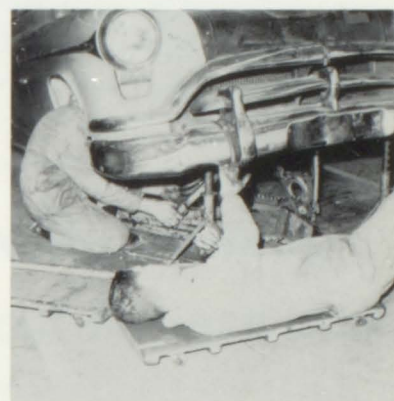

If while walking down first-floor hall, you happen to smell cookies or some other mouth-watering delicacy, you are in the vicinity of the Home Economics Department.

Preparing and serving meals, sewing good-looking dresses and suits, and shopping and budgeting household money are a few of the things which home economics students learn. Courses offered include Clothing I and II, and Home Economics III and IV.

Students of Mr. Tooker's Electricity class are checking a basic electric circuit on trainer equipment designed for classes in electricity. Mr. Tooker, instructor of the class, is shown at the right.

Mr. G. M. Russell from Penn Controls, Inc., is watching Mr. Alvin Wartsler, head of the Industrial Arts and Vocational Shops Department, point out features of the new equipment purchased for the course, electricity and electronics.

Doug Myers and a classmate are unraveling some of the mysteries of the internal combustion engine using one of their own cars in vocational auto-mechanics.

Mr. Peterson's Mechanical Drawing class was intently at work when the CRIMSON photographer appeared on this day.

J. Russell, T. Wortinger, E. Jennings, B. Fretz, A. Hunt, and V. Simmons work on their weaving projects in Designs and Crafts class.

Mr. Roderick Liechty, head of the Art Department, is shown here at his desk.

Art Cultivates Aesthetic Creativity

The Art Department, headed by Mr. Roderick Liechty, offers three years of art instruction. Art I is a general art course. Advanced Art, a continuation of Art I, encompasses a more detailed study of art. In Designs and Crafts students study functional and decorative design, stenciling, modeling, ceramics, sculpture, silk screen, felt craft, metal work, mosaic design, and leathercraft.

S. Ackerson and T. Grimes compare their artwork in Mr. Liechty's Beginning Art class.

Keeping physically fit through participation in games, swimming, and calisthenics is the purpose of physical education, a course required of all freshmen and sophomores. A program has been set up in the past year for any boys not participating in inter-scholastic sports. In addition to acquiring competitive cooperation, every individual cultivates a stronger mind and body.

Driver education is taught to induce good driving skills and habits and to afford a safe, supervised opportunity to learn to drive.

Judy Garman is aiming for a free throw in girls' physical education.

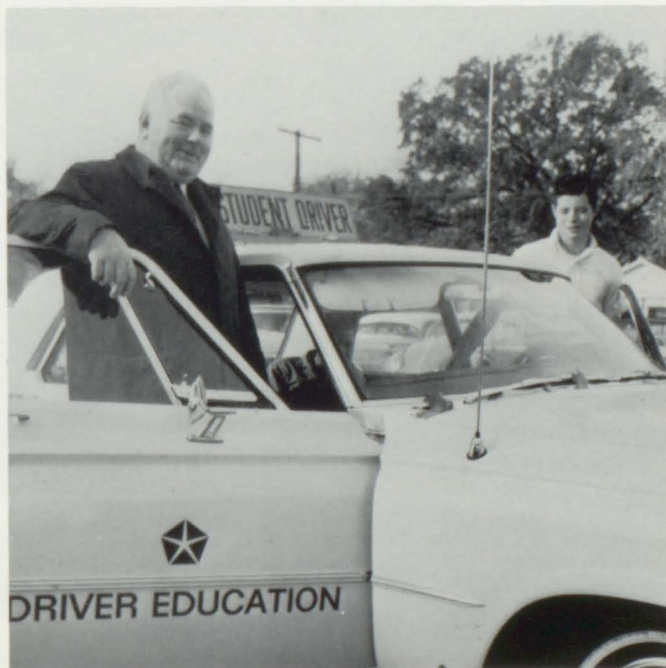

Gene Aschleman and Bob Lung build up their endurance with a few laps around the upper deck.

Physical Education and Drivers' Training Endeavor to Attain Physical Fitness and Driving Safety

Mr. Cosgrove begins another session of instructing students in the art of good driving. Terry Welty is the student.

Allen Kauffman tests his strength on the isometric weight machine.

Choir Advances Appreciation

Studying and performing many types of music is the purpose and pleasure of the choir. In the Christmas Concert the choir featured a few selections portraying Christmas in the Tropics, as well as classical music and other traditional Christmas pieces. Part of this concert was televised on WSJV. The Winter Concert and the Senior Concert were other high points the choir worked toward. It was a thrilling experience to participate in the Four-City Choral Festival at Elkhart.

The Crimsonaires enjoyed another exciting year giving programs for various organizations and planning their own Crimsonaire Concert.

The boys' quartet, Stan Miller, Mike Druly, Roland Bowen, and Ted Blosser, performed on various occasions.

Choir officers are Janet Isenberg, librarian; Jane Luke, vestment committee; Barb Fretz, librarian; Mike Druly, stage manager; Virginia Yoder, secretary; Jerry Rogers, president; Kathy Higgins, vestment committee; Janet Roth, secretary.

These choir members are displaying their costumes worn for "Christmas in the Tropics." They are Ginger Yoder, Jerry Troyer, Barb Fretz, Vickie Simmons, Roberta Higgins, Jerry Rogers, Marilyn Keil, Ted Blosser, and Janet Isenberg.

Featured in the tropical selection of the Christmas concert were Susan Fretz, Jim Miller, Irene Schertz, and Dean Taggart.

The Marching Band is ready to perform at Manchester. Below it is going through one of its precision routines.

Goshen's Crimson Marching Band once again presented its precision routine marching music to the pleasure of the thousands of football fans both at home and away. The Crimson Marchers participated in six home football games and the Penn game at Penn. Again the fine playing and precision marching of the GHS Band won a division I rating from all four judges at the State Marching Contest held at New Haven. A special honor invitation to present a football show at Manchester College was the highlight of the football season.

Orchestra Displays Versatility

The Swinging Strings are Matthew Lind, Susan Yoder, Pat Massanari, Mark Kreider, and Sam Lehman.

The Goshen High School Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Greiner is organized for those music students interested in learning and studying symphonic music. This year much time was spent reading music to better develop the attitudes of the part music plays in everyday life. The orchestra participated in the Christmas, Winter, and Spring Concerts; and many members attended the Manchester Spring Festival on March 27. Sam Lehman, the concertmaster, is a member of the North Central ISTA Orchestra at South Bend.

A new ensemble, the Swinging Strings, was organized this year. The group entertained with dinner music at community programs.

Edna Weddell, Ewa Eko, Monty Peffley, and Vicki Fields enjoy a lively discussion at a National Honor Society meeting.

CRIMSON

Barb Griffin edits more copy for the clubs section.

Project yourself into the year 1984 and visualize a decrepit GHS graduate rediscovering his treasured, tattered, dust-covered '65 CRIMSON in a dark, attic corner. As he lifts the cover, the exciting colorful memories of the past tumble out . . .

The goal of the CRIMSON staff is to produce a really memorable history book—something to make our 1984 scene a reality. Being the best-selling book in our community, the sales again aspired to nearly 1,000 despite the increased price of $4.00.

As if creating a yearbook was not a large-enough job, the enthusiastic CRIMSON staff was concerned with scheduling of senior pictures, taking and retaking of underclassmen pictures, and selling plastic covers for yearbook protection.

The '65 CRIMSON was designed for you. The staff had no intention of making it flashy, but we certainly hope it glows!

The TOMAHAWK finances itself mainly through the subscriptions which are sold for $1.00 per school year. Advertising, basketball buttons, concessions, and the Homecoming dance were other areas of income.

With the growing support of its subscribers, the TOMAHAWK hopes to become a weekly paper next year.

Boys' Cheerblock Adds Variety to Regular Yells

Miss Barbra Zook, Booster Club sponsor, anticipates another great shot by the Redskins' basketball team.

Composed of both boys and girls, the Booster Club promotes good sportsmanship in support of the GHS athletic teams. The organization sponsors pep sessions throughout the school year and fosters good relations between various schools.

During the basketball season, the Girls' Cheerblock adds color and zest to the game with vivid uniforms and organized cheers.

Officers of the club are Steve Garman, president; Beverly Butler and Jill Ogle, vice-presidents; Judi Essig, secretary; Monty Peffley, treasurer; and Miss Barbra Zook, sponsor.

Future Mathematicians Work Towards High Goals

Each monthly meeting of the Euclidean Club is different and intriguing. The programs, which are presented by members of the organization, are concerned with phases of mathematics not discussed in the classrooms.

At the termination of the school year, the Euclidean

Club with the Science Club arranges a trip to some point of interest.

The officers are Kim Dunnick, president; Kathy Main, vice-president; Jeannie Hostetler, secretary; Linda Muntz, treasurer; and Mr. Fred Blosser, sponsor.

Science Club Probes a World of Mystery

Members of Science Club look forward to the monthly meetings and demonstrations which accent their meetings. The main project of the club is to prepare and distribute the basketball rosters which are handed out at each home basketball game. At the conclusion of the school year, the organization enjoys an outing with the Euclideans Club.

Officers of Science Club for the 1964-1965 school year are Joel Tassin, president; Steve Ganger, vice-president; Jade Westfall, secretary; Kay Winters, treasurer; and Linda Muntz, director of the external affairs. The sponsor is Mr. Elmer Bowers.

Jade Westfall and Nic Allen seem to enjoy folding programs for a basketball game.

Tamera Alibekoglu, Greg Yoder, and Kay Winters keep busy at a folding session.

Latin Club Captivates Roman Culture

These students are fulfilling membership requirements with a second year translation.

Each year approximately fifty GHS students join the Latin Club. Activities are a Christmas party, Roman Banquet, the initiation ceremony, and candy sales for the club's fund-raising project.

The purpose of the club is to enhance the study of Latin by presenting the contribution of the early cultures of Greece and Rome to our society.

This year's officers are Dave Huser, president; Marguerite Schmidt, secretary; Ogla Hulewicz, treasurer; and Mr. Kern, sponsor.

Members are: Row 1. M. Hoke, C. Mayse, K. Sheets, V. Gray, L. Yoder, K. Hoopingardner, R. Espinoza. Row 2. C. Radkey, M. Mitchell, N. Kauffman, P. Burdette, M. Duncan, J. Keil, M. Smedzwick, M. ## Pan-Am Club Developes Cultural Background

As the world is spun closer and closer together, the importance of understanding others becomes extremely evident.

Spanish Club strives to further this understanding by helping students to become better acquainted with the Spanish language and customs. This purpose is further emphasized at meetings through Spanish films, songs, and games. Speakers also lecture on the customs and language.

To be a member, a student must have either taken or be taking Spanish. Officers are Sam Lehman, president; Pat Burdette, vice-president; Janie Keil, secretary; Margene Mitchell, treasurer; Joseph Briscoe, programs and posters; Miriam Pestow, refreshments, and Mr. Horneman, sponsor.

R. Hoogenboom is being initiated into Spanish Club.

Any student enrolled in a French class or who has completed one year of French is eligible for membership in Le Cercle Français. The purpose of the club is to bring French students into closer social association and to create a broader understanding of the French people and their customs. Meetings are held once a month—some after school and some in the evening. Characteristic activities may consist of the conduct of club business, films, songs, discussion, parties, and other programs. The Mardi Gras party (dinner and feature film) is the highlight of the club year. Mr. Fancil is the club sponsor.

Speech Club Unveils New Realms of Drama

Originally organized in 1959, the Goshen High School Forensic League is designed to give students, dramatically inclined, a chance to participate in various speech-wide speech contests.

These contests feature strong competition in humorous and dramatic readings, poetry reading, radio-announcing, extemporaneous speaking, original oratory, and oratorical interpretation. Goshen received its first trophy at the Elkhart Invitational Speech Contest on February 6. Out of 24 participating schools, GHS tied for third place.

The officers are John Phend, president, Beverly Butler, secretary; and David Lewallen, treasurer. Speech Club is under the sponsorship of Mr. William Shultz

Often a curtain symbolizes the finale at the theatre; yet, the officers seem to look for new horizons to investigate in the vast field of drama. Officers are John Phend, president; Bev Butler, secretary; and Dave Lewallen, treasurer.

Speech club members discuss selections for contest in a strange photographic maze.

Careful study of each oration often involves the opinions of many. Featured here are: (sitting) Lynn Webster, Bev Butler, Linda Muntz, and Olga Huleweig; (standing) Jim Miller, John Phend, Dave Lewallen, and Mr. Shultz.

Linda Muntz practices her dramatic reading while Lynn Webster, Barb Griffin, and Ogla Huleweig try to point out helpful suggestions for improvement.

Sunshine Builds High Ideals.

"Others" is the motto of the Goshen chapter of the state-wide Sunshine Society. We strive to achieve goals of charity, love, kindness, helpfulness, and giving intelligent service to our community. The society's school projects include a used-book sale to the student body, auditorium programs for World Day of Prayer and Thanksgiving, presenting each teacher with an apple, and putting flowers on the main landing at the beginning of the year. For Thanksgiving, we make favors for the children in Special Education at the Administration Building.

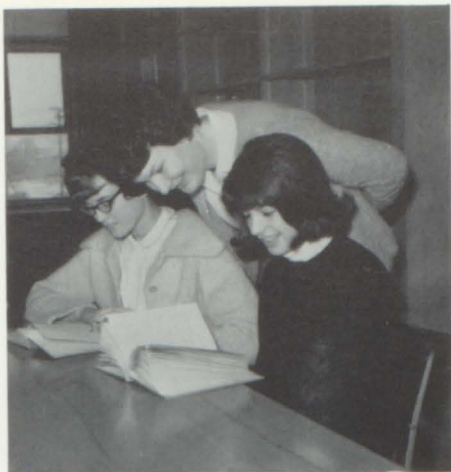

Traditional activities of the society throughout the year include Easter Day Service for the community, a "Dad-and-Daughter Banquet," a "Mother-and-Daughter Tea," a farewell breakfast honoring our senior members and a picnic for the freshman girls. Each year the club contributes to the Riley Hospital Fund and the Sunshine Nurses Scholarships. We earned money from football concessions and a basketball dance.

Snowden Stookey, Judy Morse, and Kay Winters help with the refreshments at the Christmas party.

To inform students of the opportunities and the requirements of the teaching profession is the purpose of the Future Teachers of America. Students who are interested in this profession are given an opportunity to learn more about the vocation through projects and club activities. The cadet-teaching program gives students an opportunity to confront classroom situations in a realistic setting. After this experience, the student is better able to decide upon his career.

Officers of the club are Edna Weddell, president; Cheryl Clason, vice-president; Jeannie Hostetler, secretary; Vicki Fields, treasurer; Mary Riddle, historian; Becky Yoder, parliamentarian; and Miss Ethel Grogg, sponsor.

Membership in the National Honor Society is restricted to those students who rank in the upper 15% of the senior class or in the upper 5% of the junior class. Members are initiated in an impressive ceremony emphasizing the importance of scholarship and service. Each year the National Honor Society has charge of the Goshen Relay concessions. The proceeds from this activity are used to finance a student loan fund.

Officers are Monty Peffley, president; Edna Weddell, secretary; John Nagle, treasurer; and Mr. Reiner, sponsor.

Council Strives for Better Relations Between Students and Faculty

Student Council is composed of four class presidents and five students elected from each class. The group seeks to promote understanding between the student body and the administration. By acting as a liaison between the two, the Council constantly tries to evaluate and improve school policies and thus boost school spirit.

It sponsors dances, supervises the election of class officers and cheerleaders, and arranges for the Relay Queen and her court.

Officers are Don Riley, president; Bill Bigler, vice-president; Becky Yoder, secretary; Tom Miller, treasurer; and Mr. Mathews, sponsor.

The officers of GAA help to give guidance to their club. These officers are Margene Mitchell, treasurer; Barbara Sample, secretary; Linda Drake, vice-president; and Emily Garber, president.

GAA Stresses Physical Fitness

An active organization whose purpose includes an understanding of different sports and displaying a sportsmanship attitude is the Girls Athletic Association of Goshen High School. Opportunities to earn a school letter are achieved by attending the regular meetings and by participating in the unorganized sports played outside of the regular meetings.

A GAA leadership and district camp is attended at the beginning of each year by sponsors and the officers of the club. The meetings are planned throughout the year to include various sports such as basketball, volleyball, softball, swimming, and soccer. There are playdays for members interested in competing with surrounding schools.

Featured here is a toss up between Sharon Chiddister and Cheryl Kennedy.

Mackie Steele, an aid in the Health Center, is helping Tom Griffis.

A health careers club for students interested in the many areas of the medical field is Medicorps. The programs and projects are informative, including a wide variety in such areas as pharmacy, mental health, technology, dietetics, physiotherapy, veterinary medicine, dental hygiene as well as nursing.

Members have the privilege of being well-trained to serve on duty in the Health Center, in the Goshen General Hospital as Junior Auxiliary Aids, and in the Peterson Nursing Home.

In February, the club continues to conduct the singing Valentine project. From this, Medicorps is able to make a large contribution to the Indiana Heart Association. Members also help with the annual Heart Fund Drive, the Multiple Sclerosis Fund Drive, and Tuberculosis Christmas Seal Project.

Field trips include visits to nearby hospitals, a school of nursing, and the high school day at Beatty Memorial Hospital.

Points are earned by voluntary participation in our various activities and projects. At the close of each year, members who have earned 350 or more points receive a "G" award at the annual picnic.

Officers are Judy Morse, president; Nancy Yoder, vice-president; Kathy Main, secretary; Judi Miller, treasurer; Pat Massanari, reporter; and Mrs. McFarland, R.N., sponsor.

Future Homemakers Strive Toward New Horizons

Sitting are Diane Lechlitner, president; Carla Winterrowd, second vice-president. Standing are Diane Miller, historian; Nancy Fields, parliamentarian; Jane Nichols, secretary; Darlene Miller, treasurer; Hilda Veenstra, editor; Sharon Graman, project chairman.

Future Homemakers of America is a national youth organization which aims to help its members evaluate themselves and their worth to others, to strengthen their education in home economics, and to encourage good citizenship.

Among the many activities this year, the club checked coats at home basketball games, had a Christmas party, picked an "Ideal Homemaker" each month, honored the fathers at a "Daddy-Date Night," and had guest speakers that gave talks and demonstrations at many meetings.

Officers are Diane Lechlitner, president; Sue Lung, first vice-president; Carla Winterrowd, second vice-president; Jane Nichols, secretary; Darlene Miller, treasurer; Hilda Veenstra, editor; Sharon Graman, project chairman; Nancy Fields, parliamentarian; Diane Miller, historian; Miss Beverly Weatherholt, sponsor; and Mrs. Walter Lechlitner, chapter mother.

Members include: Kneeling: M. Rensberger and M. Peffley. Row 1. D. Mansfield, J. Hartsough, J. Taylor, B. Cross, C. Zentz, J. Wray, D. Leedy, J. Fessler, P. Rhodes, D. Ditmars. Row 2. B. ## G-Men Strengthen Dignity of Athletic Letter

G-men display their various talents at a pep assembly.

Boys participating in G-Men's Club work to bolster school spirit and to maintain and strengthen the honor, dignity, and pride of the Goshen athletic letter. Meeting monthly, they listen to guest speakers such as Phil Eskew, Commissioner of the IHSAA, and annually take a club trip to a popular sports event. G-men support and take part in pep sessions and other projects concerned with building school spirit.

Officers are Bill Bigler, president; Dennis Ditmars, vice-president; Monty Peffley, secretary; Mike Rensberger, treasurer; and Mr. Shires and Mr. Doba, sponsors.

Council Deliberates Long Hours After School

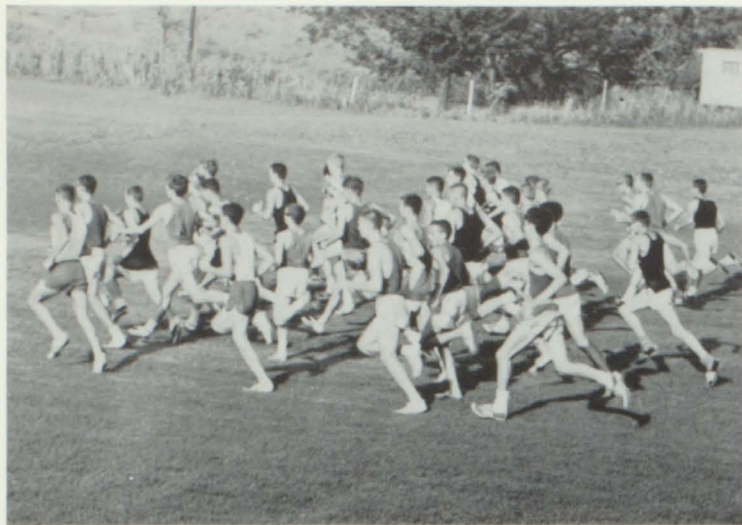

The Council for Student Organizations considers methods and goals of raising money for our school organizations. Their duties include a continuous evaluation of existing club programs.

Four class officers who are representatives as the class presidents, four sponsors of the classes, president of the Student Council, and the Assistant Principal meet once a month to fulfill their goals.

Mr. Mathews, Assistant Principal, acts as chairman of this organization.

Goshen's cross country team is running against two strong opponents. The 15-win 2-loss record put this team at top of all past GHS cross country teams.

Determination and sweat cover Jeff Rodger's face during the basketball team's defeat of Nappanee.

Athletic Programs Augment Physical Agility

Clay Colonials swarm Redskin Don Ogle (30). Goshen maintained its 14-12 lead to conquer Washington Clay in one of the best games of the football season.

Jim Mills (31) is shown going around end, against Concord. Denny Ditmars (74), Rick Huber (4), Randy Miller (85), and Jim Stack (33) are trying to help out.

Skins Hit Victory

Even with his eyes closed, end Jack Peterson takes another Sorg pass against Concord.

Gridders Win 2; Lose 8

Goshen High School's football team started its second season under Coach Joe Springer and his staff. With only seven seniors out for the team and usually only three or four of them starting, Coach Springer considered this year a rebuilding one. Even so, Goshen came up with some fine offensive work. Behind the running of Jim Mills and Floyd Trosper and the throwing of John Sorg, Goshen came much closer to teams like Elkhart, Penn, La Porte, and F. W. North than the score indicated.

Mr. Springer will have twenty lettermen back next year to improve the two-eight record of this year.

John Sorg takes to the ground against Elkhart.

Coach Art Cosgrove's Redskins again had another very fine season. After a slow start which saw them lose 5 of their first 7, the team came back strong with a Goshen-Holiday Tourney championship and a thrilling win over Elkhart. This game saw ace-guard Steve Stone throw in a 85-foot desperation shot in the closing seconds of the 3rd quarter.

This year's team must be considered an inconsistent one, with such big wins over Elkhart, Nappanee and F. W. South and losses to Middlebury, Lakeland and LaPorte! But for the 6th year in a row, Goshen ended up without a losing season.

Mr. Locke's nine was led by the strong pitching of Gary Claybaugh and the consistent hitting of Ivan Makximenko. Last year's record of four wins and eight losses is very deceiving for five games were lost by one run.

This year's team will consist of five lettermen—Doug Ritter, Jim Stack, Bill Brallier, Bob Cross, and Steve Stone.

Goshen high school's tankers came up with the best season record of their four-year existence. Winning 12 out of 20 meets with a 3 and 5 record in the conference has to be considered rather respectable. Mr. Ennis should be congratulated on this year's success.

Again underclassmen dominated the swim team as only three seniors played important roles.

This year's team broke 8 out of 12 records on their way to a 7th-place finish in the sectional and a 6th-place finish in the conference meets.

Relays Have a Record-Breaking

Kendallville was the 1964 Class B Champions, who beat second-place Nappanee by 15 points.

Gary Roosevelt was the 1964 Class A Relay champs as well as the eventual state champs.

For the second year in a row, the Goshen Relays were played under sunny skies and, as usual, many records fell. Again Gary Roosevelt and Kendallville came away with the team titles; but unlike last year, the scores were much closer. Over 900 athletes from 39 schools participated in this year's event which saw 11 records fall.

Field Day!

Last year's track squad came up with many surprises. With Coach Walker leading the way of his 4th season, four records were broken and many more came close to being broken.

For the first year in the history of the school,

Goshen recorded points at the state meet by getting 3 points for Don Leedy's 3rd place finish in the mile run. Bill Edson also went to the state but did not finish in the top 5.

Cross Country Ranks Second in Conference

Goshen's hurriers posted the best record in GHS history by winning 15 and losing only two. Both losses came at the hands of conference-champion Elkhart. This year's squad was led by Don Leedy, who broke the Maplecrest course record and finished 4th in the state meet and by Jeff Blair who also topped the Maplecrest record several times.

Elkhart and Goshen are shown starting their first meet of the year between halves of the Goshen-Fort Wayne Central football game. Goshen lost to the NIHSC champs 27 to 28.

Hi!

I'm still not sure I believe it, but the yearbook is finished—finally, completely, finished.

Please notice the acknowledgements page opposite this one. To merely say thank you seems so inadequate after all the time these people have spent creating this book. Once again I'd like to thank Mrs. Dwyer; without her, this book would never have become a reality. Jim Stack, although not pictured on the acknowledgements page, should also be recognized and thanked. He is responsible for the section of the book which so vividly captures the excitement and action of GHS sports.

Although we hope everyone appreciates this Crimson, it was especially designed to please the seniors, the great Class of '65.

We hope that in some way this book can be, at least, partially responsible for many happy memories. If someday, as you are leafing through it, a smile crosses your face or a tear falls from your eye, our efforts will have been rewarded.

Good bye. It's been fun sharing the year with you.

Sincerely,

David Lewallen

David Lewallen
Editor, 1965 Crimson

Although Diane Mathews is dressed here for a Beatle party, she spent long hours working on every phase of the yearbook.

Diana Phebus typed for hours on the index and other yearbook copy.

Barb Griffin unselfishly spent days editing the organizations section of this annual. She also worked tirelessly as assistant editor.

The '65 CRIMSON staff wants to recognize our advisor, Mrs. Berneice Dwyer. Her thoughtfulness, consideration, understanding, and kindnesses were appreciated.

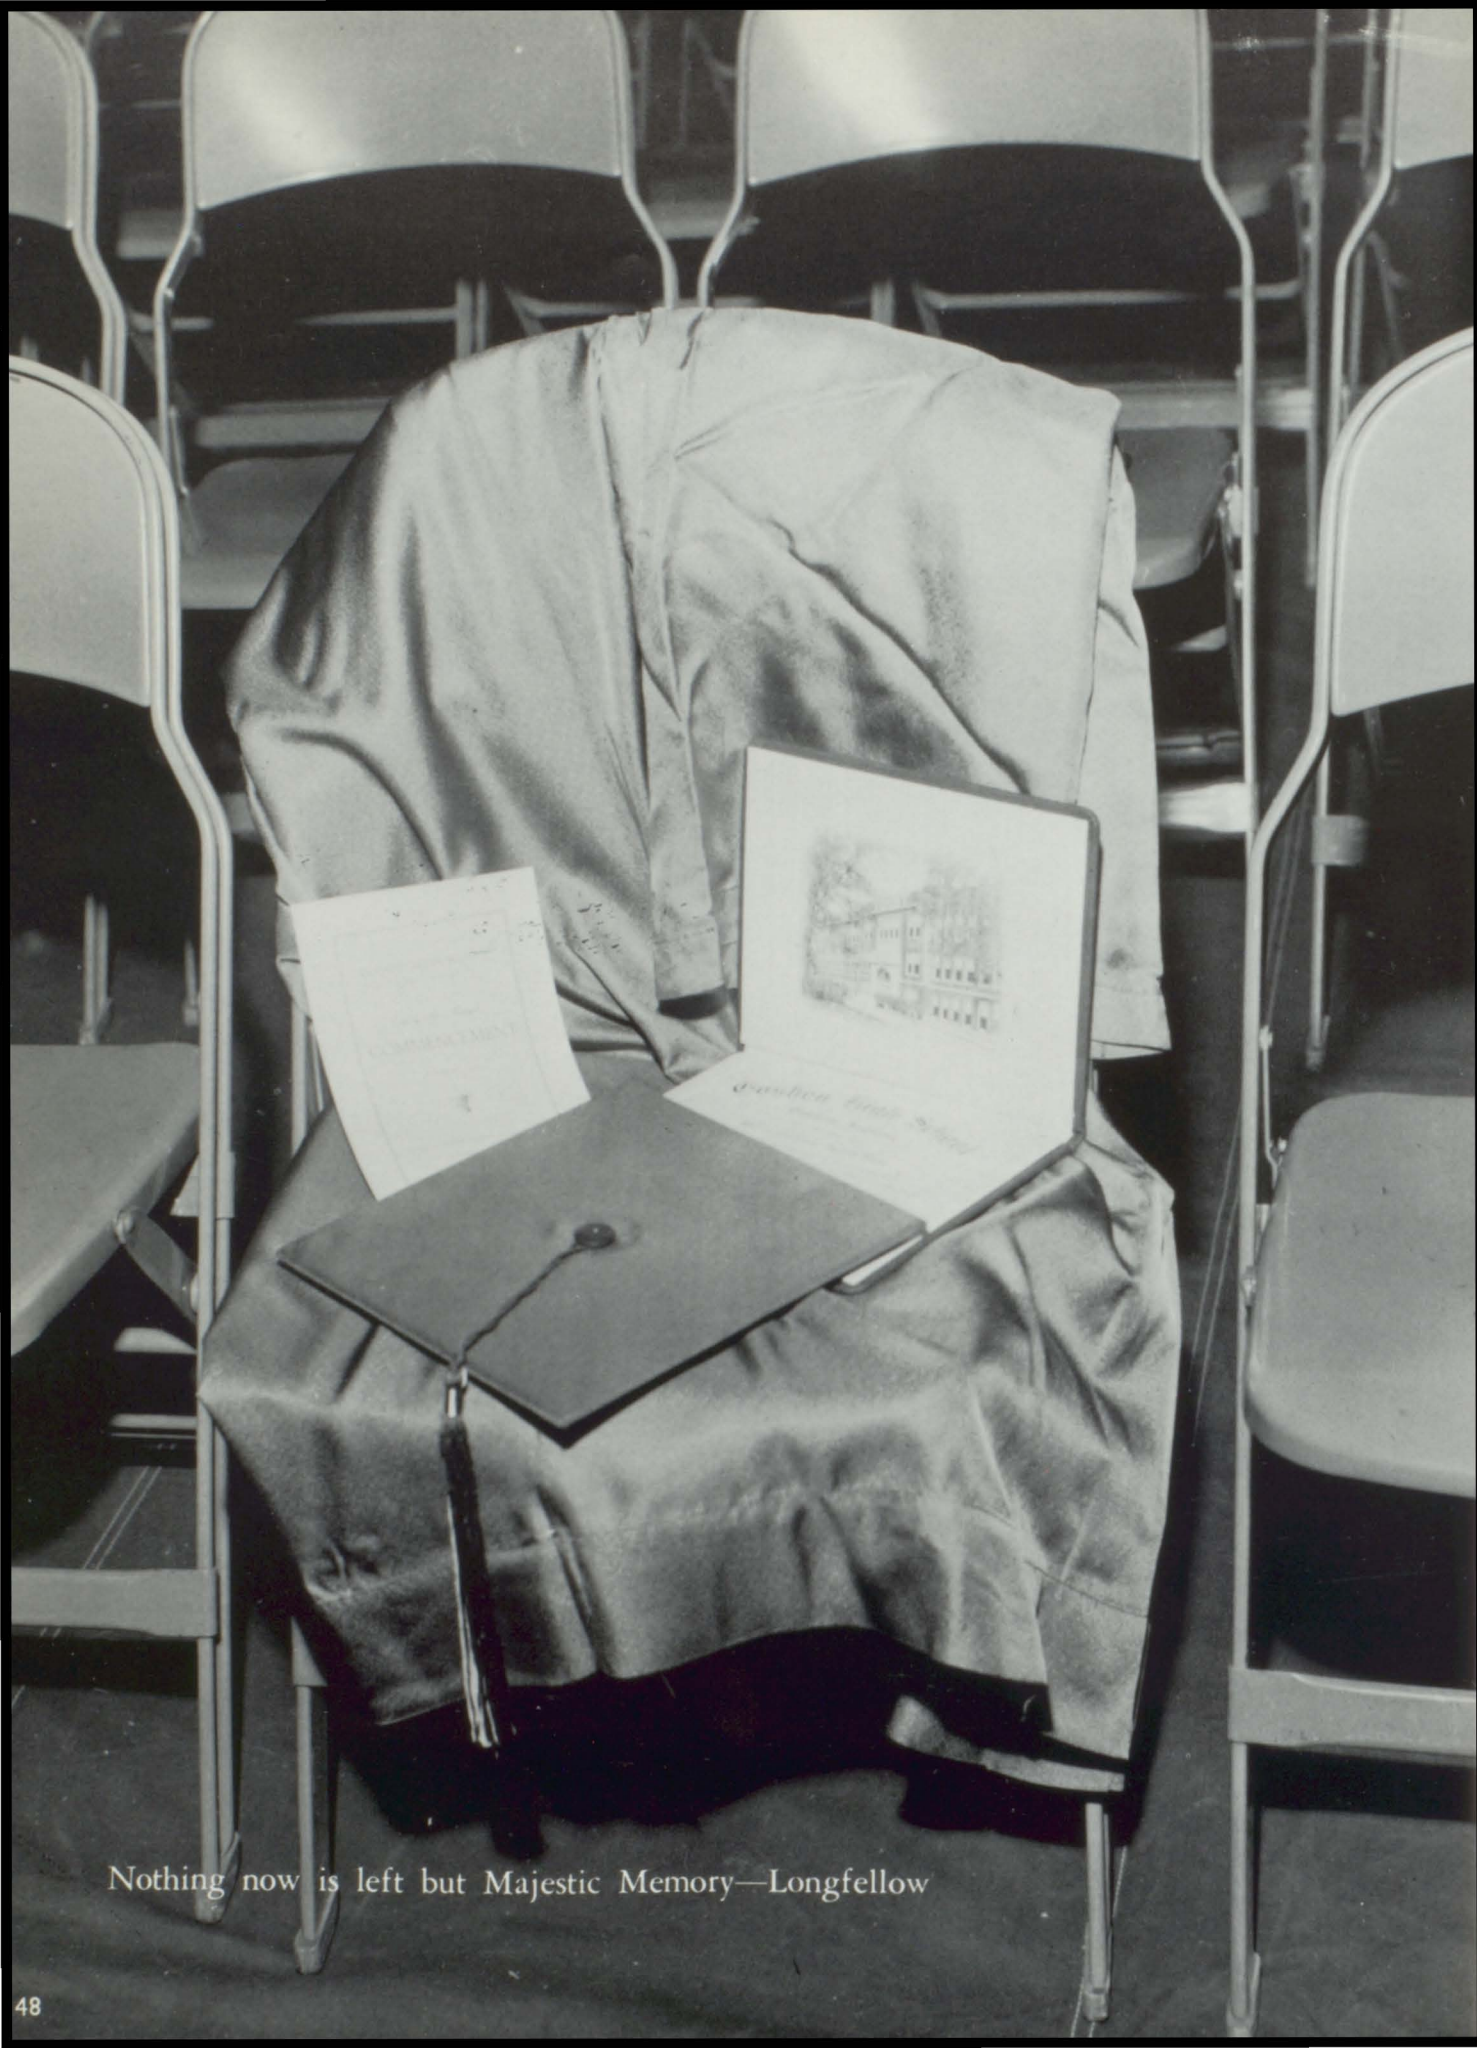

Barb Fretz, art editor, deserves much recognition and praise for her aesthetic donations to this CRIMSON. Her artistic knowledge and originality added much to the book.

Had it not been for the many pictures taken by Mr. Gordon Moore (left) and Mr. Mel Troyer of the Goshen News (right), this yearbook would not have been possible. We are deeply indebted to them for their patience and cooperation as we produced this book.
